JENNIFER WEST,VMD

Emergency & Critical Care

Jennifer West, VMD earned her veterinary medical degree at University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine. With an interest in wildlife and exotic pets, Dr. West completed a rotating small animal internship and pursued research in avian medicine at Louisiana State University. Through participation in flood relief work, she discovered her passion for triage and emergency medicine, and joined VRC's 24/7 emergency and critical care team in the summer of 2017. When not at work, Dr. West enjoys yoga, running, hiking, snowboarding, and travel.
